

IRI Analytix: School Security Group—Consultants

Eric H. Twerdahl, Managing Partner—specializes in threat assessment and behavioral security; municipal and school emergency planning, training, and exercising (Homeland Security compliant) for all-hazards including weather, man-made (e.g. chemical, biological), and disease (e.g. anthrax, smallpox) contingencies; physical and protective security for schools and universities; and workplace violence. Earlier, Consultant, Yale School of Public Health; Consultant, City of New Haven; and consultant to local municipalities associated with all-hazards and emergency communications. Formerly, Senior Vice President, Kroll, Inc., active with corporate, institutional, and higher-education security. Earlier, Chief Operating Officer, Comweb, Inc. (education technologies) and President, Industrial Technologies, Inc. (camera technologies). Former EMS Commissioner, CDC Public Health Emergency Coordinator, and municipal emergency manager active with planning, training, and drills with municipal responders and school security committees. Board Member, Infragard Connecticut—public-private consortium with FBI and other federal and state agencies.

Brian Buggé, Managing Director—specializes in K-12 and university school security. Earlier, National Director, Security & School Safety, Edison Learning, Inc., overseeing 150 schools in 33 states, developing all protocols for threat assessment, physical security audits, workplace violence, and communications plus training and exercising. Formerly, Director, Kroll, Inc., active with large-scale security audits. Security Consultant for U.S. Dept. of Housing & Urban Development (HUD). Extensive law enforcement including “community policing” with Suffolk County NY Police Department, and investigations with U.S. Secret Service. Certified Protection Professional, Certified Trainer Non-violent Crisis Intervention, Certified Police and Security Guard Instructor, Certified Protection Officer Instructor. Teaches courses in Criminal Justice and Personnel Investigations.

Jeffrey M. Banwell, Managing Director—specializes in threat assessments and the development of strategies to mitigate workplace violence, school and university violence, and instances of disturbing behavior in adults and children that may contribute to escalating threats and successful acts of violence. Earlier Senior Manager, SSC Investigations & Consulting, providing due diligence and background investigations for the University of Connecticut system, Connecticut State University system, and unemployment fraud investigations for the State of Connecticut Department of Labor. Formerly Special Agent, FBI, manager of FBI CT’s National Higher Education Security Board assessing and mitigating both domestic and international threats for higher education including Yale, UCONN, and CSU system. FBI CT’s principal liaison with CT Fortune 1000 corporations including GE, UTC, Pratt & Whitney, Sikorsky, General Dynamics, and Northrup Grumman responsible for developing strategic planning aimed at issues surrounding safety and security.

Brian Scott-Smith, Consultant—specializes with communications and media. Currently, Broadcaster, Reporter, Producer, Anchor, Host with NPR/PBS. Earlier, he was in the News Division, Broadcast TV and Radio, BBC London. He held positions with Zurich Insurance in public affairs and external communications advising on media relations and crisis management. He has been a consultant in public relations and media training for the British Army, the Naval Service, and the Royal Air Force, in the UK. He has also advised Yale University, the Yale New Haven Hospital, and several corporate and private clients in media relations and communications.

Sheila McCreven, Consultant—specializes in policy and procedure review, update, and compliance issues for public schools and communications audit services and crisis management training for Public Information Officers. Consultant for communications, project management, and strategic planning, with IT and web development expertise. Earlier 20+ years in public relations as press officer and communications specialist with employers including Yale School of Public Health, the Connecticut General Assembly, and the United Nations Department of Public Information. Member, Woodbridge Town Building Committee for major school renovation project including security upgrades. Earlier, Chair and Policy Committee Member, Board of Education, Woodbridge, CT. Former board member, CT Association of Boards of Education.

Robert Gilbert, Managing Director—specializes in security planning and operations, crisis management and disaster recovery plus training planning and supervision. Earlier, Senior Security Consultant & Security Project Manager, U.S. Department of Education; Director of Corporate Security, Alcan Aluminium Corporation; and Manager, Corporate Security & Safety, Data General Corporation. Adjunct Professor of Sociology and Criminal Justice, Mansfield State College. Mr. Gilbert has worked extensively with the CIA, FBI, US Secret Service, Department of Defense, Department of Education, and FEMA, both domestic and international.

George Strother, Managing Director—specializes with communications including communications technology in financial services, healthcare, education and government. Earlier, Vice President COMWEB Technology Group, Inc. and Global Knowledge Exchange, Inc. active with education technology and e-learning management systems for school districts, community colleges, and private and state universities. Formerly, Vice President, MetLife Healthcare, active with colleges and universities nationwide. Develops strategy for school administrators surrounding safe school initiatives to assist training school employees on a recurring basis through media and computer training approaches.

Robert M. Brittan, Managing Director—specializes in physical, technical and procedural security, intelligence and analysis, investigations, and training. Earlier, Special Agent and Deputy Director of the Center for Security Evaluation, and Chief, Physical Security Division, Bureau of Diplomatic Security, U.S. State Department; and, four-time embassy security officer. Formerly, Military Police Station Commander and installation physical security officer, US Army. In Washington, he has been as an embassy security planning subject matter expert. He is also consultant with the Institute for Defense Analyses, Directorate of Science and Technology, Department of Homeland Security.